

THE MONTHLY MIX
BY MEGAN GRIFFIN
photo by Matt Cornelius

Rodeo Style

The Four States Fair and Rodeo is in town, y'all! This is the perfect time to channel your inner Yellowstone. I love to style a good western outfit, and adding a cowboy hat or boots to a look is always a great way to accessorize. Here are a few that will help you saddle up and have a great time at the rodeo.

A gorgeous pair of white cowboy boots will truly go with everything. This color has been on trend the last few seasons, and it does not show signs of going anywhere soon.

Available for $204 via Boot Barn

You cannot go to the rodeo without a western hat. I love this neutral color, and it is a style that could be worn for many years to come.

Available for $74 via Cavender's

The cutest puff sleeve button up dress! I love the tiered detail and you can see how perfectly it pairs with cowboy boots. Add your favorite statement earrings for a complete look!

Available for $66 via Apricot Lane Boutique Texarkana

This button-up top is giving me all the western vibes with a twist. The ruffled sleeves add a feminine touch. I would style it with dark-wash skinny jeans and white boots for an adorable look.

Top available for $79
Jeans available for $89
via Lindsay Kate Designs

A romper is always such a fun and easy look. I love that it is all one piece, making it an outfit by itself. Just add a cowboy hat and boots, and you're ready to go.

Available for $92 via Apricot Lane Boutique Texarkana

Keep it casual and on-trend with this graphic tee and shorts with stretch! Pair it with some boots and you are ready to transition from the fair to the rodeo.

Tees starting at $25 (plus sizes available) and shorts with stretch for $44 via Bones & Arrows Boutique

This jacket is such a statement piece. It could be paired with a bodysuit or solid t-shirt and jeans for a look that will get you all the compliments.

Available for $39 via Boot Barn